The Brief

To prepare a menu that is in line with the “Pucker Night” theme; the food has to reflect cute girly fun with local twists on western dishes. We have taken a conceptual approach to the theme moving away from the more literal “lips and mouth” depiction to one that reflects the word Pucker as a verb in its context.

Pucker (verb) – an action of pursing ones’ lips together to kiss. Here, to pucker means to kiss, to love. But it’s a love that’s not of romance and lust, but for friends, for life and for adventure.

We have strung a menu together based on the different aspects of a girly outing from a big night out painting the town red to a cosy sleepover watching a midnight movie together.
